

RULEBOOK 2024

This Rulebook is intended to supplement and make certain modifications, deletions, and additions to the general AMTA Rulebook for purposes of the 2024 Rookie Rumble tournament (“RR”). This Rulebook is only effective for RR.

NOTE: If a rule found in the AMTA Rulebook is not listed in this rulebook, then that rule applies to RR.

NOTE: RR's AMTA Representatives and/or the RR Committee Chairperson shall have the ability to interpret these rules and make such adjustments to their operation as may be necessary to adapt these rules to the RR format.

Chapter 1 – Definitions, Applicability, the Philosophy of AMTA

Rule 1.2(g) of the AMTA Rulebook is amended for RR as follows: A trial ends when the scoring sheets have been submitted electronically.

Chapter 2 – Registration, Case Access, and Withdrawal

Chapter 2 of the AMTA Rulebook does not apply to RR. The rules and procedures on the AMTA homepage relating to RR and registration for RR replace those rules.

Chapter 3 – Eligibility

Rules 3.1-3.5 of the AMTA Rulebook do not apply to RR.

Rules 3.6-3.20 of the AMTA Rulebook do not apply to RR. These rules are replaced for RR as follows:

Competitor Eligibility:

A competitor is only eligible to compete at the Rookie Rumble Tournament if the competitor:

- (a) has previously competed in one, but no more than two AMTA seasons; and
- (b) Was listed on an AMTA roster in the 2024 competitive season; and
- (c) Has not graduated or will not be graduating from their undergraduate course of study in 2024.

Team Composition:

A team shall consist of no fewer than six members and no more than twelve members. No one may participate as a team's party representative or trial technician unless that person is on the team's six to twelve person roster. No student may compete on more than one team. No school shall have more than 16 students represented across all competing teams. Teams may comprise members from more than one school.

Team Eligibility:

Each team must provide one judge per round in order to confirm their spot. If a team cannot provide the necessary amount of judges, they may forfeit their spot in the tournament.

Alternate Eligibility:

If the tournament does not reach capacity, two alternate positions may be offered:

Role: Alternates may be offered one of two roles, as needed by the competition:

- (1) A position on the "Bye Team." The Bye Team may compete as a registered team in the event that the tournament field has an uneven number of teams. This includes being “on call” on the weekend of competition if a registered team does not show up at any point.

- (2) A position on a registered team if a registered team is unable to complete their roster with four eligible competitors.

Alternate Registrants: If there is a waitlist, Alternates and the Bye Bust team will be the first on the waitlist. If Alternate Registration is needed, it will be published shortly after the registration period closes and further instructions will be given at that time. Alternates will be used as needed on a first come, first serve basis at the discretion of the Rookie Rumble Chair.

Registration Periods:

- (a) Registration for all competitors - including those registering as full teams, partial teams, and as individuals - will open on June 3, 2024 at 3:00 pm ET and close on June 5, 2024 at 11:59 pm ET.
- (b) If there is a need, there will be a separate registration period for Alternates for the Rookie Rumble competition, beginning on June 5, 2024. Alternates are NOT guaranteed an opportunity to compete. We may assign Alternates at any time, up to and including the day of competition. If an Alternate has been offered a spot more than 7 days before the tournament, the Alternate has 24 hours to accept the offer. Failure to accept in a timely manner will forfeit the offered spot. Within 7 days of the tournament, offers will be made on a first come first served basis, such that multiple offers may be made simultaneously and the first to respond will receive the spot.
